

Nencki Institute of Experimental Biology

Ewelina Knapska a member of FENS-Kavli Network of Excellence

2018-07-17

Ewelina Knapska is now a member of FENS-Kavli Network of Excellence, to provide some of Europe's most promising young neuroscientists with a unique opportunity to expand their scientific horizons, influence scientific policies, and facilitate the exchange between science and society. It is jointly sponsored by the Federation of European Neuroscience Societies (FENS) and The Kavli Foundation. There are currently 35 FENS-Kavli Scholars from 16 European countries, with expertise spanning the disciplines of molecular, cellular, computational, behavioral and clinical neuroscience. Up to 15 scholars are chosen bi-annually by an international committee, serving a term of four years (more information: <http://www.kavlifoundation.org/fens-kavli-network-excellence>).