

Nencki Institute of Experimental Biology

Marie Curie Reintegration Grant Funded at the Nencki Institute

2011-05-04

---

The project entitled „Role of the tubulin posttranslational modifications and microtubule severing protein, katanin in the cilia central pair assembly” will last four years. The aims of this project are to further characterize the molecular mechanisms of cilia assembly, particularly the formation of the central pair microtubules, structure required for proper function of motile cilia.