

Nencki Institute of Experimental Biology

"Patenting and searching patent databases workshops" at the Nencki

2012-09-27

On 9th and 10th October the Nencki Institute of Experimental Biology will host dr Nigel Clarke from European Patent Office, that will teach our scientist basics on intellectual property rights and patenting as well as how to search patent databases.

The event is financed from BiImagine Project.

Attachments to download

- Science and Patents-workshop program [11.7 KB]